

Artist opens new art student academy

Artist Ano Youssefian has opened her new art school, Ano's Art: An Academy for Creative Minds, at 10220 S.W. Park Way in Cedar Hills shopping center.

The academy offers daytime, after-school, weekend and summer-camp art classes.

Youssefian has a bachelor's degree in fine art and elementary education. She has taught art at Catlin Gabel School for 13 years and Oregon College of Arts and Crafts for more than four years.

She has also taught at the University of Portland, Arts and Communication Magnet Academy, Riverdale Elementary, Beaverton Police Activities League and various community programs.

For fees and schedules, visit the Web site, www.anosart.com.